

waddlee-ah-cha

Workshops for the Educators of Young Children

Joyce Poe and Jeannine Aristeguieta

Share some of your favorite beach books and experiences with your students. Brainstorm with your students some of the things you take to the beach. Create a song adaptation to the tune of Going on a Picnic. Your song adaptation might go a little something like the one below . . .

Going on a Picnic

Going on a Picnic. Leaving right away.
If it doesn't rain, we'll stay all day.

Did you bring the hotdogs?

Yes, I brought the hotdogs.

Did you bring the ketchup?

Yes, I brought the ketchup.

Ready for a picnic. Here we go.

Going on a Picnic. Leaving right away.

If it doesn't rain, we'll stay all day.

Did you bring the frisbee?

Yes, I brought the frisbee.

Did you bring the bat and ball?

Yes, I brought the bat and ball.

Ready for a picnic. Here we go.

Going to the Beach

Going to the beach. Leaving right away.
If it doesn't rain, we'll stay all day.

Did you bring the sunscreen?

Yes, I brought the sunscreen.

Did you bring the sunglasses?

Yes, I brought the sunglasses.

Ready for the beach. Here we go.

Going to the beach. Leaving right away.

If it doesn't rain, we'll stay all day.

Did you bring the towels?

Yes, I brought the towels.

Did you bring the pail and shovel?

Yes, I brought the pail and shovel.

Ready for the beach. Here we go.

